

Mission

The Creative Production Center (CPC) at Paula Teacher & Associates, Inc. is designed to create a one of a kind work environment that supports individuals with unique needs as they engage in real and meaningful work. All of our clients are treated as individuals with varying vocational preferences. At the CPC a variety of work opportunities can be explored to acquire skills in the areas of design, assembly/production, clerical, and custodial services. Our employees are hired by PTA and earn minimum wage for 20% of their day. The variety of job tasks, activities, and learning experiences we offer throughout the day allow the individual to benefit in their next step in seeking supported employment services.

Creative Production Center

Creative Production Center is a licensed Chapter 2390 pre-vocational facility operated by Paula Teacher & Associates,

The program is open to both state and private funding and intellectual disability is not a criterion for admission.

About the Program

The program is designed to help the individuals meet their goals. We believe our greeting cards not only display the uniquely creative and artistic talents of the individuals, but also reflect the team work necessary for their production. We also focus on independent skill and socialization skills. During our Educational Talks we encourage the individuals to participate in the talks.

The variety of job tasks, activities, and learning experiences we offer throughout the day allow the individual to benefit in their next step in seeking supported employment. Over the past 4 years we have helped 20+ individuals move to a supported employment program.

The goal for this program is to enhance the quality of life for each individual by providing the skills needed to eventually obtain competitive community employment.
